Third-party services

Our website uses the following third-party services. Where these services are embedded, any cookies they set are governed by their own privacy policies. We are not responsible for third-party cookies set outside our domain.

Donorbox (donation processing)

We use Donorbox to power our donation forms. The Donorbox form is embedded on our site via an iframe, which loads content from donorbox.org. Any cookies set by Donorbox, including analytics and session cookies, are set on the donorbox.org domain and are subject to Donorbox's own privacy policy.

The Donorbox embed also loads a small JavaScript file (widget.js) from donorbox.org on our donate page. This script is used solely to render the donation form.
